NO. 4:12-CV-127-A

ORDER

Came on for consideration the above-captioned action wherein Gregory Anders is plaintiff and Carolyn W. Colvin, Acting Commissioner of Social Security, is defendant. This is an action for judicial review of a final decision of the Commissioner denying plaintiff's claim for disability insurance benefits and supplemental security income under the Social Security Act. On March 1, 2013, the United States Magistrate Judge issued his proposed findings and conclusions and his recommendation ("FC&R"), and granted the parties until March 15, 2013, in which to file and serve any written objections thereto. Plaintiff filed his objections, and defendant filed a response. After a thorough study of the record, the magistrate judge's proposed findings and conclusions, and applicable legal authorities, the court has concluded that plaintiff's objections lack merit and that the recommendation of the magistrate judge should be accepted.

Therefore,

The court accepts the recommendation of the magistrate judge and ORDERS that the decisions of the Commissioner that, based on the application for a period of disability and disability insurance benefits protectively filed on September 22, 2009, plaintiff, Gregory Anders, is not disabled under sections 216(i) and 223(d) of the Social Security Act, and that, based on the application for supplemental security income protectively filed on September 22, 2009, plaintiff is not disabled under section 1614(a)(3)(A) of the Social Security Act, be, and are hereby, affirmed.

SIGNED April 12, 2013.

JOHN MCBRYDE
United States District Judge
